

SAMATA PARV ABHIYAN

The Samata Parv Abhiyan held at Bharati Vidyapeeth Institute of Technology, Navi Mumbai, from, was a significant initiative aimed at promoting equality, social harmony, and inclusiveness. On April 12, 2025, the institute organized seminar to engage the public and raise awareness against caste discrimination. The campaign successfully encouraged participation from diverse groups, spreading the message of social justice and emphasizing unity, respect, and equal opportunities for all. By fostering a sense of community and shared responsibility, the event marked a crucial step towards creating a more inclusive and equitable society. The initiative's impact was evident in the enthusiastic participation and engagement of students, faculty, and staff, demonstrating the power of collective action in promoting social harmony.

